Compensation and Pay Structure

At Alpenglow Painting, we believe hard work and efficiency should be rewarded. That's why we use a piece rate pay system, which means you get paid based on the amount of work you complete—not just the hours you put in.

How It Works:

Each job has a budgeted time—an estimate of how long it should take to complete. Your pay is based on this budget, not just the time you spend on the task.

Example: If a wall is budgeted to take 8 hours to paint and you finish it in 6 hours, you still get paid for 8 hours—meaning you make more per hour by working efficiently.

However, if it takes you 10 hours to complete that same wall, you still only get paid for 8 hours, which lowers your hourly rate.

This system rewards painters who work hard, follow instructions, and become more efficient—so you can earn $24-$40+/hour depending on your speed and skill!

Common Questions About Piece Rate Pay:

"What if someone else on my team is slow? Do I get penalized for them?"

No! Each painter is assigned individual tasks and gets paid based on what they personally complete. Your pay is not affected by the speed of others on your team.

"If I finish something faster, do I get to go home early?"

No, you always work a full day. If you complete your budgeted work early, you move on to more work—so you keep increasing your earnings per hour. Faster, more efficient painters can make significantly more while still working the same hours.

How You Can Earn More:

- Work efficiently – The faster and better you paint, the more you earn per hour.
- Follow instructions carefully – Doing the job right the first time avoids rework, keeping your pay high.
- Improve your skills – As you get better, you'll naturally become faster and make more money.
- Advance to Crew Lead – If you take on more responsibility and leadership, you can earn even higher rates.

Compensation:

- Junior Painter Starting Pay: $24-28/hour.

- Crew Lead Starting Pay: $28-33/hour.
- Top performers can earn $30-$40+/hour by improving speed and skill.

Other Bonuses and Incentives:

- $250 bonus for staying until the end of the painting season
- $50 bonus per 5 Star Google Review (if you worked on that project)
- $150 bonus for referring a booked project
- $150 bonus for referring another painter (who stays until the end of the painting season)

This system ensures that you're in control of your earnings—the more skilled and efficient you become, the more you make!

Schedule & Work Expectations

- Work Schedule: We operate on a 4-day workweek (usually Monday–Thursday, 8 AM – 6 PM). This gives you a 3-day weekend every week, allowing for a better work-life balance. Occasionally, if a job has a tight deadline, we may ask you to work on a Friday, but this is rare (about once per month).
- Punctuality & Reliability: Being on time and ready to work at the start of the day is essential. Our team relies on each other to stay on schedule and complete projects efficiently.
- Uniform Requirement: We will provide you with a branded t-shirt, hoodie, and hat. You just need to purchase your own white painter pants and/or shorts. This uniform is required on all jobsites to maintain a professional company image.
- Work Environment & Physical Requirements: This is a physically demanding job, requiring you to be on your feet for long periods, using ladders, and lifting paint buckets and equipment as needed. Lots of our work is outdoors, so we adjust schedules when necessary for extreme weather conditions (e.g. starting earlier on hot days, not working when it's pouring rain).
- Teamwork & Professionalism: We take pride in delivering high-quality work and maintaining respectful, professional interactions with both clients and team members. Communication, accountability, and a strong work ethic are key to success in this role.
